The Magic Circle

5 March 2019

Enjoy an evening of magic and mystery in the world's foremost magic club

Date: Tuesday 5 March 2019

Time: 19:00 – 22:00

Dress: Business attire or smart casual with name badges

Venue: The Centre for the Magic Arts, 12 Stephenson Way, Euston, London, NW1 2HD

Travel: The Magic Circle headquarters is a two-minute walk from Euston Square Station and a five-minute walk from Warren Street Station. It is a ten-minute walk from King's Cross St Pancras and is also served by many bus routes on the Euston Road.

From its formation in 1905, the mysteries of The Magic Circle have delighted and amazed.

The evening will commence with a visit to The Magic Circle Museum. This holds a wonderful range of magic books, props, posters and artefacts from the club's founding through to the present day. Further examples are to be found on show throughout the headquarters building.

A cash bar will be open on arrival, so please arrive in good time, as it can get busy.

You will then learn about the history of The Magic Circle and also witness some world class close-up magic.

The evening will continue with a magic show in the purpose-built, on-site theatre.

You will have the opportunity to pre-order refreshments for the interval, when you will be able to explore the headquarters building further.

We are sharing this private visit with the City Livery Club.
This will provide the chance to meet old friends and make new acquaintances.

We wish you a truly memorable and magical evening!
